

*The Fifth Workshop on Boundary Element Methods,
Integral Equations and Related Topics in Taiwan:
Celebrating the 70th Birthday Anniversary of Prof. Der-Liang Young*

Oct. 4, 2014

Prof. Der-Liang Young is a Life-time Distinguished professor in Department of Civil Engineering, National Taiwan University.

This workshop is aimed to gather colleagues, friends and former students of Prof. Der-Liang Young to present their research work in honor of his long-time contribution to the scientific community of Computational Hydraulics and Numerical Simulation. More than 4 foreign talks, to be presented, cover models and methods developed for solution of equations arising from a variety of physics and engineering that feature Prof. Der-Liang Young's excellent academic life.

Organizers:

Prof. Tzon-Tzer Lu (Department of Applied Mathematics, National Sun Yat-sen University) E-mail: ttlu@math.nsysu.edu.tw

Prof. Jeng-Tzong Chen (Department of Harbor and River Engineering, National Taiwan Ocean University) E-mail: jtchen@mail.ntou.edu.tw

Local committee:

Prof. Chia-Cheng Tsai (National Kaohsiung Marine University)

Prof. Der-Chang Lo (National Kaohsiung Marine University)

Prof. Chia-Ming Fan (National Taiwan Ocean University)
