EASIAM Student Paper Prize

To be Presented at the 8th EASIAM Conference (EASIAM 2012).

National Taiwan University, Taipei, Taiwan. June 25-27, 2012

About the Prize

The EASIAM (East Asia section of SIAM) Student Paper Prizes are awarded every year to the student author(s) of the most outstanding paper(s) submitted to the EASIAM Student Paper Prize competition. This prize is solely based on the merit and content of the student's contribution to the submitted paper. The purpose of the Student Paper Prizes is to recognize outstanding scholarship by students in applied mathematics or scientific computing. Each recipient of the EASIAM Student Paper Prize shall receive a framed certificate and a cash prize of US$300. Up to three awards will be bestowed.

Eligibility

Competition applicant must be a Ph.D student currently or a recent Ph.D graduate (within one year of her/his thesis defense on the application deadline) in universities of East or Southeast Asia.

Requirements

To enter the competition, each applicant must submit (1) a short vitae including her/his list of publications and (2) the complete paper. In addition, the student's advisor must submit a letter that describes and evaluates the paper's contribution to the literature and the student's role in the publication.

Notification of Prize Winners

The EASIAM President will notify the candidates who have been shortlisted for the award by April 15, 2012. To receive the prize, each candidate is required to present her/his paper at EASIAM 2012 Conference to be held in the National Taiwan University.

Submission

Deadline of the submission is February 15, 2012. Please send your submission via Email to Secretary of EASIAM, Professor Shao-Liang Zhang. zhang@na.cse.nagoya-u.ac.jp
